Any investment always associates with both internal and external risk factors having both direct and indirect effect on the investments made by the investor. Among those risks some can be averted, others are beyond control, which may cause loss. Before making any investment decision, investors need to consider the associated risk factors, the risk premium and management perception. If any of the following risks actually happens in the business, operational results and financial conditions could suffer and investors could lose their investments partly or fully. The management of Abound Steel Industries PLC perceives the following risk factors, both external and internal, which are enumerated hereunder:

The disclosures of Risk factors shall include, where applicable, the following:

a) Interest Rate Risks;

Interest rate risk is the risk that company faces due to unfavorable movement in the interest rates. Changes in the government's monetary policy along with increased demand for loans/investments tend to increase the interest rates. Such rises in interest rates mostly affect companies having floating rate loans or companies investing in debt securities.

Management Perception:

Management of Abound Steel Industries PLC always emphasizes to manage its finance to an optimum capital structure of the company so that the cost of capital & debt remains minimum. The management always prefers to take loan with reasonable competitive rate. At present ASIP has no long-term debt. We have only short-term bank loan for working capital.

b) Exchange Rate Risks;

Exchange rate risk occurs due to changes in foreign currency exchange rates. As the company imports equipment from abroad and earns revenue in local currency, unfavorable volatility or currency fluctuation may affect the profitability of the company. If exchange rate is decreased against local currency opportunity will be created for generating more profit.

Management Perception:

The company receives the entire ASIPs proceeds in local currency and makes majority of the import payments in foreign currency. So, for a given depreciation of Taka against a particular foreign currency like US Dollar, the import payment may get affected. In that situation the product price will be higher to cover up the additional charges. This will not hamper the regular ASIPs trend as the other local manufacturers as well as the importers of finished goods will also be affected by the same.

c) Industry Risks;

Industry risk is related with the factors affecting the company such as Raw Material, labor, demand of the product, government policy to the sector, competitor's rivalry.

Management Perception:

Abound Steel Industries PLC is aware of the above fact. Industry risk is inherent in any kind of business.

The risk due to changes in global or national policies is beyond control of any company. Yet the Company is well prepared to adopt new policies and preventive measures as and when required to reduce such risks. Furthermore, political unrest due to strikes and mass protests may have a negative impact on any business. However, electricity service being considered a daily necessity is most often kept out of obstruction. Most importantly, adequate risks are covered under the insurance agreement with the insurance companies, to compensate for all the potential damages.

Other Information

This is the first year audit for us of the company for the FY: 2023-24. Another independent auditor had issued an unmodified opinion for the FY: 2022-23.

Management is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all of the information in the Annual report other than the financial statements and our auditors' report thereon. The directors are responsible for the other information.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information; we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

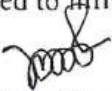

Management is responsible for the preparation of financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with IFRSs and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. - Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.

Financial Risk Management

The Company's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: credit risk, market risk (including interest rate risk and foreign currency risk), and liquidity risk. The Company's risk management focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimize potential adverse effects on the Company's financial performance. The Company uses derivative financial instruments to economically hedge certain risk exposures.

Financial risk management is carried out by accounts and finance department under policies approved by the Board of Directors. Company finance identifies, evaluates, and hedges financial risks in close co-operation with the Company's operating units. The 'Finance Policy' provides principles for specific areas, such as credit risk, interest rate risk, foreign currency risk, use of derivative financial instruments, and investment of excess liquidity.

This note presents information about the Company's exposure to each of the risks arising from financial instruments and the Company's objectives, policies, and processes for measuring and

Maturity Analysis :

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk of financial loss to the Company if a customer or counterparty to financial instruments fails to meet its contractual obligations, and arises principally from cash and cash equivalents, time deposits, and trade accounts receivable. The credit risk with Trade and Other Receivable (see note 10) is limited, as the Company has numerous clients located in various geographical regions. The Company's exposure to credit risk is influenced mainly by the individual characteristics of each customer. For risk control, the customers are companied as follows (risk companies): governmental organizations, listed public limited companies, and other customers. Credit limits are established for each customer, whereby the credit limit represents the maximum open amount without requiring payments in advance or letters of credit; these limits are reviewed regularly (credit check). The maximum exposure to credit risk is represented by the carrying amount of each financial asset, including derivative financial instruments, in the Statement of Financial Position. There are no commitments that could increase this exposure to more than the carrying amounts.

Particulars	30 June 2024	30 June 2023
Trade Receivables (Taka)	80,266,124	50,343,796
Cash & Cash Equivalent (Taka)	8,307,070	11,244,079
Total	88,573,194	61,587,875
Cash in Hand	292,437	221,787
Cash at Bank	8,014,633	11,022,292
Total	8,307,070	11,244,079

Management perception

To mitigate the credit risk, the management of the Company follows robust credit control and collection policies. The Company has dedicated credit collection team who are responsible for any dues and they have been demonstrating remarkable performance in collecting receivables as per Company's credit and collection policy.

Market Risk

Market risk is the risk that changes in market prices, such as interest rates, foreign exchange rates, and other prices will affect the Company's result or the value of its holdings of financial instruments. The objective of market risk management is to manage and control market risk exposures within acceptable parameters while optimizing the return on risk.

Management perception

Management is fully aware of the market risk, and act accordingly. Market of software in Bangladesh is growing rapidly. Moreover, the objective of market risk management is to manage and control market risk exposures within acceptable parameters, while optimizing the return.

Interest Rate Risk

At the reporting date, the Company had the following interest-bearing financial instruments: cash and cash equivalents, time deposits, rent deposits, and bank liabilities. All cash and cash equivalents mature or reprise in the short-term, no longer than three months. Borrowings mainly bear interest at fixed rates. Cash and cash equivalents and borrowings issued at variable rates expose the Company to cash flow interest rate risk. The Company does not account for any fixed-rate borrowings at fair value through profit or loss. Therefore a change in interest rates at the reporting date would not affect profit or loss. The Company Finance manages the interest rate risk to reduce the volatility of the financial result as a consequence of interest rate movements. For the decision whether new borrowings shall be arranged at a variable or fixed interest rate, the Company Finance focuses on an internal long-term benchmark interest rate and considers the amount of cash and cash equivalents held at a variable interest rate. Currently, the interest rate exposure is not hedged.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they fall due. Company Finance manages the Company's liquidity to ensure sufficient liquidity to meet all liabilities when due, under both normal and stressed conditions, without facing unacceptable losses or risking damage to the Company's reputation. Excess liquidity can be invested in instruments such as time deposits, government, and corporate bonds, shares of publicly listed companies, and capital protected instruments.

Total	724,802	1,482,203
	6,557,768	7,773,401

Management perception

The Company's approach to managing liquidity is to ensure as far as possible, that it will always have sufficient liquidity to meet its liabilities when due under both normal and stressed conditions without incurring unacceptable losses or risking damage to the Company's reputation. The Company has sufficient current assets and cash & cash equivalent to meet expected operational expenses including financial obligations.

About the Industry: Abound Steel Industries PLC

Bangladesh is one of Asia's buoyant emerging steel markets and has a growing need for raw materials and steelmaking technologies. The movement towards a progressive national economy strongly depends on how the construction materials especially steel related industries have evolved and such products are readily available. Steel is a basic raw material for infrastructural development and multiple other uses. Fortunately, the country has a proud heritage for the art of steel making for a long time.

The Government of Bangladesh has projected the economy to grow by 7.5% in FY2023. Meanwhile, Asian Development Bank (ADB) has also forecasted the economy to grow by 7.1% in FY2023, which makes Bangladesh as the fastest growing economy in Asia Pacific region. According to industry experts, there is a linkage between a country's economic growth and growth in steel consumption. If GDP is expected to grow by 7.0%, steel industry should also grow widely. From infrastructural development to industrial, from household machineries to surgical scalpels, the presence of steel is everywhere. Thus, the growth in the production and use of steel is undoubtedly a key indicator of development for any country. The growth of steel industry in Bangladesh is mainly induced by the rapid expansion of the country's real estate sector, as well as the major investments in various infrastructure projects throughout the country. Implementation of the government's huge infrastructural development plans have been driving the double digit growth rate in the country's steel industry and we expect that the industry will also be enjoying strong growth in the next decade amid ambitious development initiatives by the government. Besides, growing urbanization, industrialization, increased wage earners' remittance inflows and higher purchasing power of consumers are accelerating the growth in overall construction sector.

Steel industry includes prefabricated building and structural steel Market. A prefabricated building, also called a prefab building, means that the entire building, house or part of it is first constructed in a factory. Prefabrication is the process of making whole structure components of the building at factories or other manufacturing sites and then transferring it from the manufacturing site to where the building is going to take place. A pre-fabricated steel structure is now being used for different purposes such as setting up factories, multi-storied buildings, power plants and bridges. A higher resale value of the steel structure is another reason it has gained popularity. On the other hand, the country has immense potential in steel infrastructure as steel consumption per capita is still very low against global standards. Many companies are setting up factories with pre-fabricated steel structure as it gives the flexibility to relocate at any time and makes maximum use of floor space.
